

NORTHCOURT
• LODGE •
NURSING HOME

More than a home from home...

Northcourt Lodge is a boutique, 21 bedroomed nursing home located in the leafy suburbs of Reading, within easy reach of the town centre.

Our compassionate and highly skilled team at Northcourt Lodge are dedicated to each of our residents, recognising their need to be treated and cared for as individuals.

We are an independent home with independent values

Nursing - Dementia - Respite - End of Life Care

Northcourt Lodge has been established as a nursing home for over 15 years.

All rooms are individually styled, comfortably furnished, and are designed with upmost safety and security in mind, including a nurse call bell system.

The home has two spacious communal areas where residents can sit and chat together or engage in some of the fun and stimulating activities each day.

Residents are encouraged to enjoy meals in the pleasant dining area. Of course, if a resident would prefer to eat in their room, they have that choice.

There is facility for hairdressing, chiropody, and occupational therapy sessions, all adding to resident good feel factor.

The gardens at Northcourt Lodge are plentiful; adorned with summer planting making it the perfect place to sit on summer days.

About us

Revathy has been the Registered Manager of Northcourt Lodge for over 10 years. She is also a Registered Nurse.

I am passionate in supporting my team to provide outstanding quality care to make a difference and enhance the lives of the individuals we are privileged to care for. My commitment is provide a nurturing and engaging environment so that our residents can live happy and truly meaningful lives

Many of our team of registered nurses and well-qualified health and social care staff have been integral to the Northcourt Lodge family for more than 10 years, providing consistent safeguarding, welfare and life enrichment of our residents. We never use agency staff.

We pride ourselves on being multi-cultural and able to communicate and understand different ethnicities.

Nourish the Soul

Every resident is an individual - we respect and value their uniqueness. We are passionate about our residents' wellbeing; spiritually, mentally, and socially.

We value the importance of Activities at Northcourt. Our own special in-house activities co-ordinator brings so much joy and laughter to the home. Whether it's singing, playing games, arts and crafts, movement, potting plants, themed events, reminiscing - you name it, each day brings new entertainment!

The diversity of our activities reflects the interests and capabilities of our residents, often increasing their life skills, sense of purpose and self-worth.

We also invite outside entertainers for added value.

That's why we believe Northcourt Lodge is more than a home from home...

Nourish the Body

Balanced nutrition and nourishment are at the core of our delightful, freshly prepared meals by our creative chef.

Our chef has been at Northcourt Lodge for over 15 years and is respectful of our residents' likes, dislikes and any modified or specialist diet. Diverse in her menus to suit all tastes, with several options available.

Home cooking is at the heart of our cuisine!

Classic, simple and modern cuisine encourages residents to recall happy times and memories and stimulate appetite. Sunday lunches are a speciality!

The dining area is a calm place for residents to share conversation over a delicious meal.

Here to help

We appreciate moving to a new home is not an easy decision to make for your loved ones. We welcome people to visit our home and to ask as many questions as you need.

It is our purpose to create a smooth transition to Northcourt Lodge, regularly communicate and involve you throughout the residency, and guide you beyond

Our residents are our family.
Their relatives are our extended family.

We welcome you to Northcourt Lodge.
